

Walver Sans Serif

Font Information & License

About the Designer

Walver is designed by Waftype, an independent type foundry focused on creating clean, functional, and modern typefaces. Waftype explores simplicity, readability, and strong visual character, making fonts suitable for branding, editorial design, posters, and digital use.

About the Font

Demo fonts may be used for testing and experimenting purposes only. This includes client presentations. Any professional or consumer facing projects require the purchase of a standard license. If the font will be transmitted or used by a client, the client must purchase an appropriate license.

If you wish to use Walver for commercial purposes, please purchase the appropriate commercial license or contact the author for permission.

Redistribution, resale, or modification of the font files is not allowed without written permission from the author.

By using this font, you agree to respect the designer's rights.

Credit & Contact

Please credit the designer as Waftype when possible.
